

KNOXVILLE COLLEGE UPDATE

The Knoxville College Renaissance: Securing the Next 135 Years

Dr. Robert H. Harvey

Knoxville College Alumni Hall of Fame

The inaugural Robert H. Harvey Knoxville College Alumni Hall of Fame induction ceremony will be held Friday, October 15, 2010 at the Knoxville Marriott Hotel, Grand Ballrooms, 500 Hill Street, Knoxville, TN. The evening will begin with a reception at 5:30 p.m. hosted by KCNAA Knoxville, TN Alumni Chapter. The program will begin promptly at 6:30 p.m. with inductees walking the red carpet.

The Master of Ceremonies for the evening is Hallerin Hilton Hill, a radio and TV talk show host. Mr. Hill is the regular host of News Talk 98.7 and Sunday T.V. talk show, Anything Is Possible, on WBIR-TV Channel 10. Hallerin Hill is a Grammy-nominated singer/songwriter for Whitney Houston, Take 6, and Bishop T.D. Jakes. Hallerin travels the country speaking to businesses as a member of the National Speakers Association. He is married with two children and a graduate of Oakwood College.

Special guest entertainer for the evening performing smooth jazz for our Honorees is saxophonist, Tom Braxton, who performed 17 years with the late Wayman Tisdell. For more information about Tom Braxton, go to: <http://www.tombraxton.com/index.htm>

This event is one of several homecoming activities to kick-off the Renaissanceof KC Campaign to raise millions for the College. Homecoming plans include celebrating the College's 135th anniversary, honoring Dr. & Mrs. Harvey along with 11 distinguished alumni, and unveiling the Gallery of Distinction Saturday morning, October 16 in McKee Hall on the campus of Knoxville College.

Please join KC faculty, staff, students, alumni, family and friends for an exciting homecoming weekend celebrating the Renaissanceof KC.
